Type:	Full-time
Salary:	Highly competitive, based on experience and qualifications
Start date:	Immediately

McAllister Olivarius is an international law firm, based in the UK and the U.S., specialising in equality and anti-discrimination law. We are a plaintiffs' firm with a focus on feminism and social justice and a desire to improve the law and innovate the practice of law as part of our work.

Our purpose is to make whole those who have suffered injustice. Our vision is a better world where the law works better for everyone.

About Our Firm: Founded by groundbreaking feminist lawyer Dr. Ann Olivarius, McAllister Olivarius is a market-leading international law firm with special expertise in bringing justice to clients who have suffered discrimination, harassment or abuse. Our work includes high-profile contentious and non-contentious employment work, including Title VII and Title IX violations, sexual harassment, victimization and whistle-blowing; and civil rape, trafficking and online harassment, including image-based abuse. We have particular expertise representing physicians, academics and senior executives at major corporations and institutions, including Amazon, Oxford, Deutsche Bank, the University of California, the University of Rochester, TIME Magazine, the Catholic Church, Jehovah's Witnesses, Mount Sinai Health System and other large banks, law firms and companies.

About the Position: We seek a top-quality, self-starting US-qualified lawyer who thinks clearly, writes well and quickly, and is able to run US cases with a high degree of independence. We are actively building the next generation of leadership at the firm, so there are real and significant opportunities for growth. Excellent academic credentials and hands-on, real-world litigation experience are required; experience representing plaintiffs is desired. The successful candidate will possess energy, imagination and the verve to leverage our considerable legal talent, but the most important criterion is experience litigating cases. You will be the sort of person who is inspired to succeed and an "out of the box" thinker, be detail orientated, a careful analyser and writer of legal prose with an appetite for challenging assignments. Above all, you will care about doing the right thing.

Our Requirements:

- Excellent academic credentials (essential)
- Minimum of 5 years litigation experience (essential);
- First-rate written and verbal communication skills (essential);
- Experience representing plaintiffs (desirable)
